TYRE DEANDRE NICHOLS

Tyre DeAndre Nichols was born on June 5, 1993, in Sacramento, California to RowVaughn Wells and Steven Nichols (deceased). He was the youngest of four siblings. After high school, Tyre moved around until he decided to make Memphis his home. He was preparing to make Memphis his permanent home for himself and his son, Milo.

Tyre loved skateboarding, watching the sunset, photography, and most of all helping people. He had the most infectious smile.

He was preceded in death by his father Steven Nichols and his godmother, LaTanya Yizar.

Tyre leaves to cherish his memory, his mother RowVaughn Wells, stepfather Rodney Wells, son Milo Nichols, sister Keyana Dixon, two brothers Michael Cutrer and Lenge Dupree, III, grandmother LaRay Honeycutt, aunts Kandi and Toni (Carter), uncles Johnnie Honeycutt, and Rewia Beamon, II, nieces and nephews Khamari Ellis, Kameron Ellis, Iyanna Cutrer, Akelees Dupree, Tiyani Dupree, Karter Dupree, Brooklyn and Amiyah Dupree, and god siblings Latoya Yizar, and James Yizar. He also leaves honorary godparents, Marvin and Lori Volker, honorary god brother Kris Volker, honorary god sister Christina Volker, and a host of cousins and friends.

Tyre was also blessed with a new family in Memphis, Lucille Washington, Adrienne Wells and Emani Wells.

FOREVER IN OUR Hearts

People have a story to tell why not capture it [in pictures] instead of doing the "norm" and writing it down or speaking it.

- TYRE D. NICHOLS

Words of Appreciation

You may have said a prayer, expressed your condolences through a call or text; maybe a card, floral arrangement, or monetary gift; maybe you prepared one of your favorite dishes and sealed it with a hug and kiss. Whatever you did to help us get through this difficult time in our lives, know that words alone can't express how thankful and grateful we are that you took the time out of your busy schedule to do so.

Although we may have missed someone or we were not able to reach everyone, just know the Lord has seen and hear it all and for that He will bless you.
